- (c) a Savage, Model Axis, Rifle;
- (d) a Ruger, Model 10/22, Rifle;
- (e) an Aero Precision, Model Texas, Rifle; and
- (f) 40 rounds of assorted ammunition.

(Collectively, the “Defendant Properties”)

2. On or about May 2, 2019, law enforcement officers seized the Defendant Properties from a house located at 2006 William Tell Street, Houston, Texas. The Defendant Properties are in the custody of the United States Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (hereinafter “ATF”).

3. Alex Franco (hereinafter “Franco”) filed an administrative claim to the Defendant Properties with ATF, which has halted the agency’s forfeiture proceeding of the Defendant Properties.

Jurisdiction and Venue

4. The Court has subject-matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1345 and 1355.

5. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1355(b)(1), 1391(b), and 1395.

Statutory Basis for Forfeiture

6. The Defendant Properties are subject to forfeiture under 18 U.S.C. § 924(d)(1), which provides for the forfeiture of any firearm or ammunition involved in or used in any knowing violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(d), (g), and (o). Under Section 922(d)(5), it is unlawful for any person to sell or otherwise dispose of any firearms or ammunition to any person knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that such person is an alien illegally or unlawfully in the United States. Under Section 922(g)(5), it is unlawful for a person, who being an alien illegally or unlawfully in the United States, to possess in or affecting commerce, any firearm or ammunition or to receive any firearm or ammunition which has been shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce. Under Section 922(o), it is unlawful for any person to possess a machinegun.

7. Defendant Properties have been shipped or transported in interstate commerce.

Facts

8. Based on previous investigations, ATF agents learned that China based website CBTForce.com sells Glock Machinegun Conversion Switches (hereinafter “GMCS”) in the United States that, when installed, convert a Glock pistol into a fully automatic machinegun.

9. On or about November 15, 2018, Sergio Montenegro (hereinafter “S. Montenegro”) ordered a GMCS for $19.99 from CBTForce.com. The GMCS was shipped from China to 2006 William Tell Street, Houston, Texas, via China Post/U.S. Postal Service (Tracking #LW003975633).

10. On or about May 2, 2019, federal and local law enforcement officers went to 2006 William Tell Street, Houston, Texas. Investigators interviewed S. Montenegro and learned that his younger brother, Oman Montenegro (hereinafter “O. Montenegro”), ordered the GMCS. O. Montenegro said he used his older brother’s name because he was not twenty-one years old. The Montenegro brothers installed the device on a Glock pistol and test fired it at a family ranch. The GMCS enabled the Glock pistol fire fully automatic.

11. The Montenegro brothers and their mother gave investigators written consent to search the residence. During the search, investigators found and recovered the GMCS and Defendant Properties. The Defendant Properties were located in various places inside a bedroom that the Montenegro brothers share. The Montenegro brothers told investigators that the Defendant Properties belong to their cousins Victor Franco, Alex Franco and Ricky Bellman. The Montenegro brothers also said that they go to the firearms range often and like to shoot guns.

12. Further investigation disclosed that the Montenegro brothers and their mother entered the United States illegally. They told investigators that they are seeking asylum.

13. Under these circumstances, the Defendant Properties are subject to forfeiture because they were involved in knowing violations of 18 U.S.C. § 922(d), (g) and (o).
